Dear Editor/Producer:

Gary Zukav has transformed the way millions of people view themselves, their relationships, and the world around them. His groundbreaking book on spirituality, The Seat of the Soul, has sold 3 million copies in the U.S. alone and spent 31 weeks at #1 on the New York Times bestseller list, remaining on the list for almost three years. He is a frequent guest on Oprah, and his work has been published in twenty-four languages.

Now, in his first major book since The Seat of the Soul, Gary Zukav reveals a revolutionary new path for spiritual growth in SPIRITUAL PARTNERSHIP: The New Human Relationship Dynamic (HarperOne: April 27, 2010; $25.99, hardcover). According to Zukav, a spiritual partnership is a new relationship dynamic – one between equals for the purpose of spiritual growth. Spiritual partners use information from their inner sources, such as their emotions and intuition. They learn how to develop trust in the Universe and choose their intentions consciously. Spiritual partnerships exist for a new multisensory humanity that is being born – a humanity that is not confined to the limitations of our five senses. Where previously our relationships were built around needs, our new relationships are built around cultivating our most loving selves.

In the book, Zukav outlines the steps to discovering this profound new relationship dynamic which enables and empowers individuals to reach their true potential and discover what he calls “authentic power.” He explains that spiritual partnerships are not exclusively for married or committed couples; they can be created in families, between friends, in the workplace, at school – anywhere two or more individuals decide to create a relationship as equals. Their intention to grow spiritually with every interaction rather than blame or judge each other when reactions occur becomes the defining point of the relationship.

Filled with Gary Zukav’s inspirational prose, his poignant examples and his practical guidance, SPIRITUAL PARTNERSHIP empowers and enables us to explore our emotions, our intentions, our choices, and our intuition, and to use these experiences to discover profound spiritual growth. Here readers will find an in-depth transformational voyage into the deepest, most wholesome, and truly refreshing sources of meaning and purpose in our lives.

I encourage you to interview Gary Zukav and/or feature his book and will be in touch soon to discuss the possibilities. For more information about Gary Zukav, visit www.seatofthesoul.com.

Best wishes,
